

2008 Woollahra Environmental Sculpture Schools Competition

'Keep the sea plastic-free!'

In association with the Woollahra Small Sculpture Prize, Woollahra Council invites your school to participate in the 2008 Environmental Sculpture Schools Competition.

Ask your students to make their own small sculpture with the theme 'Keep the sea plastic-free' (refer to entry form for details).

Have the sculptures delivered to Woollahra Council by Friday 17 October 2008.

Finalists' work will be exhibited in tandem with the Woollahra Small Sculpture Prize.

Students will be eligible for two prizes:
'Woollahra Environmental Sculpture Schools Award' awarded by a judge and 'People's Choice Award' awarded by exhibition viewers.

For entry forms or further information, please go to www.woollahra.nsw.gov.au, or call Council's Environmental Education Officer on 9391 7095.
